Printing & Usage Overview

"What is a specialty contractor?" I asked myself as I started planning my home renovation. It's a term I kept seeing, but I wasn't sure what it meant exactly. So, I did some digging and here's what I found out. The Basics: Who Are These Specialists? A specialty contractor is a pro who focuses on one specific trade or skill. Unlike a general contractor who oversees the whole project, these guys are the experts in their field. They might handle plumbing, electrical work, roofing, or even something more niche like pool installation or solar panel setup. It's all about having a deep knowledge of one area. Why Does It Matter? Well, if you're planning a project, knowing who to call can save you time and money. For example, let's say you need a new roof. You could hire a general contractor who will then subcontract the roofing work out to a specialist. But why not go straight to the source? A specialty contractor will
